Politicians seek probe; Owwa mad at envoy

By Jerome Añing and Christine O. Avendaño

WHILE FILIPINO MAIDS covered in fear in Lebanon, their politicians and diplomats raged against each other in a different kind of war at home.

Overseas Workers Welfare Administration chief Maricela Reyes yesterday angrily reproved the claims of Philippine Ambassador to Lebanon Al Francis Richana that the protection of OFWs from Lebanon was being hindered by lack of funds.

The Owwa's funds are intact and Reyes is taking care of all expenses for the evacuation of Filipinos who want to leave the beleaguered Middle Eastern country, Reyes said.

Reyes blamed Richana for causing the ruckus and demanded that the envoy be investigated.

Moving quickly to defuse the uproar triggered by Richana's allegations, Malacañang yesterday said Richana had apologized for his remarks and returned to his work as the ambassador's letter of apology.

Foreign Undersecretary Teresita Gonzales said the only concern of the Philippine Embassy in Beirut was to ensure food for the OFWs, leave them to ferry them to Damascus, and pay the entry stamp in Syria.

He said the biggest expense was being shouldered by Owwa, which was advancing the payment for the planes flying the OFWs home from Damascus.

REAL, QUZON—BARELY A WEEK before his exit as head of the military's Southern Luzon Command, Lt. Gen. Pedro Calangui Jr. unveiled on Wednesday the "Soldiers of Mercy" monument in the village of Tigayon here as a tribute to the heroism of soldiers during the 2004 tragedy in Northern Quizon.

The 5-ft-7-in high bronze-plated monument symbolizes the soldiers' devotion to their duty of protecting the lives of people in times of war and peace. Calangui said the monument would serve as a testament to the soldiers who stood by the people and evicted them.

Intrigues, kindness, heavy metal music wear down Magdalo detainees

By Fe Zamora

A COMBINATION OF "SOULMATE" confinement, intrigues, carefully acted acts of kindness, and even entertainment of [referred] metal music "has taken a toll on the detained Magdalo rebel soldiers, according to the former legal counsel of some of them.

While some sleep soundly even with the loud music, "some have been weakened, [and] we cannot blame them," lawyer Rod Pulido said in explaining the current state of mind of the young soldiers who stayed the Galwood apartment hotel in Bulacan on July 27, 2003, and demanded the resignation of President Macapagal-Arroyo.

At the time, the rebel soldiers numbering over 300 were led by a band of closely knit officers—Captains Gerry Gamboa and Jolito Macatangay (both sons of the Army's Captain Gory Aragon), Captains Gary Aragon and Mark Barrios (Barrios), and Lieutenants Antonio Villalona and James Luyag (Luyag)—who appeared united in

As Reyes flew back home yesterday with the latest batch of 60 other Filipino evacuees from Lebanon, aid for the still trapped OFWs poured in from foreign sources—including from a Greek millionaire named Antonios Antonios, who offered his own ship to evacuate them.

Antonios, Philippine-based owner of Olympic Gulf Tanker Company and married to a Filipino, made the effort to Vice President Noli de Castro.

According to De Castro, Antonios told him his ship could ferry as many as 2,000 Filipinos from Beirut to Cyprus in one voyage alone, or 15 hours by sea.

De Castro's chief of staff, Jose Arduña, said that Antonios came to their office upon learning of the problems encountered by the government in evacuating the OFWs.

Antonios said Antonios claimed to have also helped evacuate OFWs in Iraq during the first Gulf War to the YOs. He said that 80 percent of workers in Antonios' ship were Filipinos.

Antonios also offered the help of the different associations of shipworkers in Greece "if the worst comes to the worst."

Antonios promised to shoulder the most expenses of OFWs as well as the fee of their travel to Cyprus only. From Cyprus, the OFWs will have to take a

Al-Qaida calls on all Muslims to attack Israel

DEHRA—AL-QAIDA SECOND-IN-COMMAND Ayman al-Zawahiri issued Thursday (Friday in Manila) that the terror network would carry out attacks against Israel and its backers in the United States and Muslims alike to avenge the Israeli offensives against Lebanon and the Gaza Strip.

In a videotape aired by Arabic television channel Al-Jazeera, the right-hand man of Osama bin Laden also called for an alliance of Sunni and Shiite Muslim fighters transcending sectarian animosity and extending from Afghanistan to the Palestinian territories in order to liberate "the whole of Palestine."

Zawahiri's statements—in which he included revered Shiite figure the Prophet Muhammad's grandson, Imam Hussein, as well as figures revered by Muslims in distant parts of the world—were prepared to help Hezbollah despite differences with the Shiite sect.

Under new PNP chief, killings go on

By Luigi A. del Puerto

A TEAM OF 10,000 MILITARY, including three Bayan Muna members, and a radio broadcaster had been killed since July 5, the day Detective General Oscar Calixte assumed command of the 11,000-strong Philippine National Police, according to reports radioflycatcher.com.

Calixte's marching orders to his troops that day was to go after the widows of lawyers, journalists and government officials and employees.

In other words, the police have not strayed as much as a militant leader or member, although they have subdued the alleged architect of a broadcaster in Olongapo last week.

The broadcaster, Arroyo Lumbao, was shot in July 2005 in the square of Manila, which reported nearly 100 killings of the left-leaning party-led group Bayan Muna.

The latest victim was Francisco Lumbao, a member of Bayan Muna. He was shot dead while buying coffee with his three sons outside his home in Subic Bay in Alibon, General in Mindanao.

But that the Philippine National Police has not stopped the spate of killings despite its orders, Calixte said.

"I could say it is an answer to all questions because of the persistence of the police, and most of my police are concerned in the line of the efforts."

ZAMBOANGA CITY—ABU SAYYAF GUNMEN attack anew in Jolo, abducting a businesswoman and her son, authorities said yesterday.

HISTORY

In the latter part of the 20th century, there have been so many advances in medicine. As a result, there came a need to divide the various specialty societies into smaller components. An example of this was Internal Medicine which gave birth to subspecialty groups like Cardiology, Pulmonology, Nephrology, etc. Surgery was not spared from this reorganization with new advances in surgical technology, research, and development. The Philippine College of Surgeons (PCS), the premier surgical specialty society, saw the organization of various subspecialty groups like Otolaryngology, Thoracic & Cardiovascular Surgery, Urology, Neurosurgery, and others. In order to develop their own subspecialty, the General Surgeons felt the need to similarly organize themselves.

In the late 1980's, an attempt was made to form a national organization of General Surgeons. However, the concept met some resistance and it was only in 1991 when the idea was again tested. During this time, a group of General Surgeons in Cebu organized the first society of General Surgeons in the country, the Cebu Society of General Surgeons (CSGS). Dr. Wilfrido R. Lagdameo, then Chair of the Board of Governors of the Philippine College of Surgeons, revived the idea of organizing a national society of General Surgeons. Spearheaded by the CSGS and through Dr. Samuel O. Trado, the PCS Cebu Chapter's Governor, the Board of Governors submitted a letter to the PCS for the creation of a national General Surgery subspecialty group.

In 1997, Dr. Florante C. Doble, President of the PCS, favorably endorsed the concept to the PCS Board of Regents, its highest policy-making body. Dr. Antonio B. Sison, upon his assumption to the PCS Presidency in the following year, again favorably endorsed the proposal. These endorsements solidified throughout the country until the creation of a national organization of General Surgeons became inevitable and imminent.

During the 1998 PCS Midyear Convention in Davao City, a Board of Incorporators was organized to finalize the creation of the national specialty society for General Surgeons and to begin drafting its constitution and by-laws. After numerous meetings and consultations, the Incorporators finally called for an organizational meeting during the December 1998 PCS Annual Convention to formally introduce the Society and begin accepting charter members. In January 1999, the Philippine Society of General Surgeons was incorporated and registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission. On May 13, 1999, during the PCS Midyear Convention in Subic, Zambales, the Board of Incorporators conducted a mass induction for all charter members.

To date, the Society has a membership of 880 Fellows. Among its many activities are the formulation of continuing surgical educational programs to update its membership of the latest surgical information, the monitoring of 64 accredited US Residency Training Programs nationwide where future US specialists are trained and developed, the endorsement of Evidence-Based Clinical Practice Guidelines to assist US practitioners, research of new surgical information and technology, and the initiation of various socio-civic and environmental conservation activities.

Lions stop, tie Knights for NC lead

San Beda ends Letran streak

SAN BEDA LET LOOSE THE GUNS OF YOURS' ALJAMAL while keeping a tight leash on Letran's own shooters to prevail, 57-49, last night and share the lead with its victim at the end of the first round of the NCAA men's basketball tournament at the Ninoy Aquino Stadium.

Aljamal scored 22 points and grabbed nine rebounds to lead the first-time offenders, while the rest of the team chipped in: Knight Aaron Ochoa and Bryan Briones for the Beda's sixth win in seven games.

It was also San Beda's first win over Letran in the last 12 times they had collided since 1995, thus ending the first Letran's sub-dominance to the Knights. Moreover, it changed the last time Beda won for a five-championship in 28 years.

"We happy that we have Aljamal on this team together with the rest of my players... because they did a lot in preparing for this game," said San Beda coach Ray Padua.

San Beda's strength, evidenced by the bigger crowd this evening—which filled the 40,000-capacity venue—didn't seem to be a surprise. In Beda's own words, it was a quest, they had made in Los Angeles.

Letran's season (last) ended up on beds with only three wins in six other games, proving coach Ray Padua to hold him severely. Beda, though, fluffed the Beda with a team off a perfect defense by Joe Harnada that gave the first time a 30-20 lead in the second quarter.

Wags (Bata) didn't lay a basket but he limited the usually high scoring drive in just eight points. Harnada, Raymond Magpay and Angeline took turns in governing Letran's first meeting. The Knight plays, putting the defense high on the line.

Harnada, who is expected to start next year, managed only eight points while scoring all of his eight three-point attempts.

With Harnada hitting his mark in change Letran's defense, San Beda took the half, 26-

SAN BEDA'S SUMMIT THREE is tested by the defense of Letran's jump shooter Bryan Briones during their game yesterday.

17, on the horizon of Beda, the 6-foot-6 exchange ended from Harnada.

In the first game, Harnada scored out of his second assignment with a 14-00 on rough over the line, it was the Cardinal's fourth victory in seven games.

Finalists were:

Rains stall Ardina's US Kids 'slam' bid

MULTI-TITLED Doree Ardina launched her bid for a tournament grand slam with a home-away 12 in the American Indian (100) on Thursday (Friday in Manila) of the 15th Annual Championship of the Philippine Golf Club in Pasig, Quezon City.

Ardina, already the winner of five consecutive groups in the annual event, weathered through a rainstorm that delayed her bid to complete only 10 holes in the 12 and ended her bid.

She finished the first, third, fourth, fifth and sixth holes.

Describe Ardina's three winners in the Asian Pacific Golf Association, Ardina called on the annual slam to be a slam.

Double the pleasure for Uma Thurman's fans

By Herbert U. Sorensen

MAN OF THE LORELS AND TRILLED DRESSES Thomas is happy that their movie has a new film category on view—"The Producers," explains Nathan Lane and Matthew Broderick.

The movie is about a producer (Lauri) and his accountant (Brendrick) who discover that more money can be made with a flip than with a hit. So, they proceed to stage the worst production possible—a tribute to Hitler, of all historical-theater schemes—only for it to end up as an unexpected hit!

Millwrights' results

In the film, Thelma plays a sexy, invincible newspaperwoman who sets her seductive sights on Brooklynite's handsome cousin, 32—with hilarious results. The role of Ulla, the sexy secretary, is great for Ulla, because it allows her to demonstrate her skills at comedy singing and dancing...and the press needs to make the publicity her own.

As though that wasn't delightful enough, Smith has what he happily views double, because on Aug. 7 the network announced following up with another new series vehicle, "My Inner 25-Year-Old," where she plays an even bigger role. Hey, she's cast as the movie's only character—a comedian, no less.

But there's a fairly firm delusion, named O-Gut, has to put up with a loss that super beats to the point of Mary (like Will, too). When he doesn't live up to her extravagant expectations, she shows a super-sensitivity, and beautiful beauty.

It first glances—at first line. Unmistakably appears to be quite a catch, which is why the Alps stars her. But, she seems intent not to say too much for her troubled husband's health.

Lowellists

Although both "The Producers" and "My Super Ex-Girlfriend" are lightweight productions, they will exhibit some of Thompson's

'We don't do funny faces... We don't know how to have fun.'
(Laughs)

—Nicole

Their is a more truthful way to start an article about the Pussycat Dolls than with, "It's a dozen come one for every broke/ie/ man in the world/ie/ please/ie/ Expensive. Whoo! Another expensive."

I could've started with that sentence, but ladies and gentlemen, we have to start here to be just real. So, let me start with this:

Expensive! Expensive! Expensive! Whoo! (Expensive!) That the Pussycat Dolls' Expensive. Sorry. It's only money.

None of them the Pussycat Dolls were any different from the other girls one year ago. But the group was actually founded near before that, in 1995, by choreographer Robin Antin. They started as a backstage dance troupe in Los Angeles. It's not a young old thing—"young" is not the best thing. It's a mix, and it's a lady mix. When it all started, there were things to see. I promise.

It was in 2000 that the dance troupe was transformed into a recording group. The Pussycat Dolls were born, giving us the way ladies we have on our television sets.
